1. GENERAL INFORMATION

The Department of Classics and Italian Studies of the University of Bologna invites applications for its intensive Summer School in Classical Languages (2025). The programme lasts for 3 weeks, over the period 16 June – 4 July. All teaching is in English.

Failure to reach the minimum number of participants (by the deadline of 3 June 2025) will result in the Summer School not being activated. In the case of non-activation, the Department will reimburse the paid fee, bank charges excluded.

a) The School offers intensive classes in Beginners Greek, Beginners and Intermediate Latin (50 hours each). The teaching will be focused mainly on linguistic aspects and syntax.

b) A single course lasts for 3 weeks, within the period 16 June – 4 July; classes are run either in the morning or in the afternoon. Students can choose to attend a double course (Greek + Latin [Beginners or Intermediate]) at a discounted fee, attending classes during both mornings and afternoons for the whole 3-week period mentioned above.

c) Classes will be held from Monday to Friday, in presence (in class, mostly in the Department of Classical Philology and Italian Studies, via Zamboni 32), on mornings and/or afternoons (see previous point). If the health situation in Italy requires it, the Department may decide that the course will be held online.

d) The following courses are available:

- Beginners Latin
- Intermediate Latin
- Beginners Greek

A detailed syllabus of the courses will be provided upon request, and will be given to students at the end of the course.

e) At the end of the school students are given a certificate of attendance.

The certification of attendance is subject to: the payment of all fee instalments by the established deadlines; achievement of a minimum attendance of 70% of the class hours; passing the final examination (with a grade of at least 18 out of 30). Any exams or progress tests carried out during the programme, at the end of each module or course unit, shall not be marked but will be considered by the examination board as an element of evaluation for the final assessment.

NB: the courses do not award ECTS (European university credits).

2. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The programme is reserved for candidates who, by the time of enrolment (Tuesday 3 June 2025), meet one of the following conditions:

- a) are in possession of a first cycle university degree (BA) or a secondary school diploma;
